

DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES & WILDLIFE
TRAVEL AND INTERNSHIP AWARDS

For Fisheries and Wildlife Sciences Undergraduate Majors

This program provides money to undergraduate students in the Department of Fisheries and Wildlife who are traveling to conferences, particularly when presenting their research at a conference; or for volunteer or low-paying internships or international internships or study abroad.

TRAVEL- May apply anytime

Munson Undergraduate Travel Award

- Full-time undergraduate students, including Post Bac, presenting their research (oral or poster) at a technical conference.
- Other considerations are for attending a workshop, training, or professional development event.
- Students exhibiting leadership, diversity, interdisciplinary interests, and need are encouraged to apply.

Izma Bailey Conser Memorial Scholarship

- Current FW students for international travel expenses related to internship or study abroad.
- Part-time students are eligible.

INTERNSHIP – May apply at any time.

General Internship Fund – several awards

- Incoming or current student in FW.
- Participating in volunteer or low-paying, off campus internship or one with unusual expenses.
- Internship is related to student's expressed educational goals.
- Part-time students are eligible.
- Evidence of leadership, volunteer activities, potential for successful career.

Gerald L. Fisher Internship in Aquaculture & Hatchery Management

- Incoming or current full-time undergraduate student in FW.
- Participating in volunteer or low-paying, off campus internship or one with unusual expenses.
- Internship is related to expressed educational goal in aquaculture or hatchery management.
- Can be used for travel and other expenses.

TO APPLY (One application. Scholarship Committee selects appropriate award)

- 1) One-page letter introducing yourself, describing your educational goals and professional aspirations relative to fisheries and wildlife, relationship of the conference or internship to your goals, and how you are qualified.
- 2) Travel and Internship Award Application Form, which includes the budget narrative (below).
- 3) Resume
- 4) *Mentorship Travel Awards only - letter from Mentor and/or acceptance letter from conference organizers if appropriate.

This is a competitive process based on the quality of application, the above criteria and fund availability.

FOR MORE INFORMATION and to submit the application, contact:

Internship Coordinator, 104 Nash Hall, Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR 97331
(541) 737-1091 fw.internship@oregonstate.edu

Please attach additional application materials as necessary.

Budget Narrative: (Describe your budget and award request. Address each expense and income. For conference lodging, break down the nightly rate. Include the minimum amount needed to allow you to do this opportunity, if the total amount requested cannot be awarded.)

Statement of Financial Need: (Include other actions you will be taking/have taken to reduce your expenses i.e. Share a hotel room.)

If you would like to, indicate if you are a student with real-world issues or challenges related to class, culture, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, language, race, ability, and sexual orientation and how this award can help you.

I, the undersigned, certify that the information on this application is correct, and grant my permission to the Department of Fisheries & Wildlife to review my student records and to release information from this application to scholarship donor agencies.

Applicant's signature (Typed is OK)

Date